

Company Overviews

ConEdison Solutions, ConEdison Energy, Competitive Shared Services and ConEdison Development are

The Competitive Energy Businesses of Consolidated Edison, Inc., one of America's largest and longest-operating investor-owned energy companies, with assets valued at over $28 billion. We are building a national presence through a series of strategic acquisitions, and currently have offices in: White Plains, NY; Cherry Hill, NJ; Burlington, MA; Arlington, VA; Houston, TX; Tampa, FL; Durham, NC and Overland Park, KS.

We are continually looking for new talent to join our expanding team of experienced professionals.

We provide a dynamic, diverse, and challenging environment with exciting job opportunities ranging from engineering to technology, from marketing to sales, from finance to customer service.

Provides cost-effective energy solutions for commercial, industrial, residential, and government customers; the company's dedicated team of energy professionals delivers a broad range of commodity, consulting, demand-side management, sustainability and performance contracting services.

Invests in, operates and markets the output of electric energy supply facilities in the United States and provides specialized wholesale energy services in the electric power and natural gas markets; maintains a small portfolio of contractual fuel supply assets; supports ConEdison Solutions by managing its supply portfolio; and markets the output of third-party electric generation assets.

Provides a full range of human resources, financial management services, risk management, and the development and management of the regulatory strategy and policies of the Competitive Energy Businesses of Consolidated Edison, Inc.

Invests in and manages energy infrastructure projects as well as develops and launches new asset-based business models for the ConEdison Competitive Energy Businesses; the company's portfolio has included domestic and international generation, transmission and distribution systems, and renewable power investments.

A Sampling of Career Opportunities

Commodity Sales Executive

Responsible for developing and managing a portfolio of accounts.

Systems Analyst

Works with internal business clients and end-users to identify and specify business requirements and processes/translate system scope and objectives into specific system specifications and applications.

Electrical Engineer

Provides conceptual design and design document preparation services for electrical infrastructure, energy efficiency and capital improvement opportunities.

Service Specialist

Provides accurate, friendly and prompt customer service, handling incoming customer questions, billing issues, marketing initiatives and customer service related inquiries.

Energy Trader

Responsible for buying and selling energy related commodities; performing analyses of asset bidding and hedging strategies and activities related to load forecasting, scheduling and nominating energy flows.

Business Development Analyst

Evaluates and makes recommendations on business opportunities, including both organic growth and acquisitions, based on market analysis and financial modeling.

The demand for renewable and sustainable energy is growing. This is an opportunity to join a leading organization on the energy frontier.

A Sampling of Benefits

Comprehensive Health and Dental includes:

- Preferred provider medical plan
- Hospitalization plan
- Physical examinations
- Well baby care
- Routine dental exam
- Dental X-rays and cleanings
- Restorative services

Prescription Drug Plan includes:

- Prescription card program
- Mail-order prescription program

Stock Plan includes:

- Investment of straight time pay
- Company contribution

Matching 401(k) Thrift Savings Plan includes:

- Investment choice—multiple funds
- Eligibility upon employment

Flexible Spending Account

Use before-tax dollars to pay for out-of-pocket health care expenses and for work-related dependent care expenses

Tuition Reimbursement Plan

Assists employees in obtaining business-related degrees

Employee Assistance Program

A 24-hour service for employees and their immediate family members

Find out more about our employment opportunities at

ConEdison Solutions, ConEdison Energy, Competitive Shared Services and ConEdison Development

ConEdison Competitive Shared Services
100 Summit Lake Drive, Suite 410
Valhalla, NY 10595

Fax: 1.914.286.7727

Email: staffing@conedcss.com